

Moozie and the Big Ugly Bug

Big Moozie the cow is kind as can be.
Not one other creature is kinder than she.

She was home in the barn one rainy day,
with all of her roommates mooing away.

The pigs were snorting and making mud pies.
The horses were braying and trotting with pride.

The goats were butting each other in fun.
The old mother duck quacked "Everyone Run!"

"What's wrong maaaaay we ask?" said the goats in the barn.
Duck quacked, "It's a bug and I don't mean to alarm,

But this bug is big, too big for a snack."
Horse brayed, "I'll squish it so just stand yourself back."

Pigs oinked, "Oh yuck, that is a big ugly bug with two horns, hairy feelers on a black beetle mug!"

Horse raised high his leg muscular and lean,
Cow cried out, "Moozie! come quick to the scene!"

Moozie cried, "stop!" as horse's hoof crashed to the ground.
All of the animals held their breath, gathered round.

Moozie nudged at the dirt and big bug crawled out.
All the animals gasped and let out a shout!

"Oh goodness!, we're sorry... Moozie told us to stop
But big bugs are quirky and scary, are they not?"

Moozie began in her kind gentle tone,
"Bugs, like books, cannot be judged by appearances alone.

We have to look deeper and see even bugs can be good.
Looking for good is everything as always we should.

Bugs can be helpful to everyone, see,
they have their place on Earth just like you, just like me."
